Dear Mr. Nordeen:

Whitman Publishing Company have sent us your letter of March 25, 1968 with respect to the Western Exchange Bank note. These sheets are common, as you know. However, some of the other collectors in the area may wish to have these notes and you can send a couple of sheets, if you care to have me sell them for you, without cost to you, and without profit to us.

Please do not send the sheets if they are folded, ragged, or torn, as they would only be of interest if they are in choice condition. Send them in a tube so that they are not damaged.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN

Dear Mr. Newman,

I'm sending two sheets for Sidney G. Lindson, for the check.

I'm also enclosing ten for you to sell and one to keep for yourself, for selling them.
The ones you sell, are fifteen dollars a sheet.

I'll give you one for every ten you sell.

I'll send three three to Paul Garland same time.

Sincerely yours,
Harvey Hordeen

P.S.

I have some sheets
that are completely signed with both signatures. #30. 2 a sheet.

Dear Eric:

Thanks for your kind words regarding the Paper Money Catalog.

At this writing I am sorry, but we would not be interested in the sheets that were listed in your letter.

It is not a question of price, but we have so much on hand and we do not want to add to it.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman;

I was wondering if <sup>you</sup> recieved those 11 sheets of 4 notes?
Are you having any luck with them?
Do you think $15.00 is to much for them?
I told Mr. Garland how many I had, 150 sheets left.
Mr. Paul Garland wrote and said he could devise a plan to sell them all. If the necessary arrangments could be made with me.
I wrote and asked him what kind of plans he had.
I think I could go along with any of his plans.
Mr. Garland never did answer my letter.
Could you let me know what his intentions are?
You can send him this letter if you want too.
If you would let him know I will go along with his plans.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH,

Dear Mr. Nordeen:

We received the eleven sheets you sent; one has been sold, and two others are submitted for sale to friends.

Your price is too high for a dealer to handle because most dealers want to make a reasonable profit. If you want to sell your entire stock for a very modest price I can discuss the matter with Mr. Garland. I presume that his along the lines of what he is thinking about.

There are just a very limited number of people who will buy an item, like yours, for full value, but there are probably many others who will buy it if it is very cheap.

We will contact Mr. Garland and let you hear from us later.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman,

I've been wondering if you're gonna purchase these notes 150 sheets at $5.00 a sheet.

Would like to know as I might be able to sell them before the end of the month to another party.

If you or your party wants them send a check and I will send them immediately.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Nordeen:

Another person and myself will purchase all of your sheets. We assume this includes all of those which are signed as well as those which are unsigned. It will also include those sent to us in St. Louis.

Let me hear from you by return mail as to exactly how many you have altogether and payment will be forth coming.

Thank you for writing me again.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Nordeen:

Enclosed are checks aggrgating $820 for the unsigned sheets and for the fully signed sheets. You should keep the sheets which are signed on one side only.

These checks will cover all the open matters between us.

Please send the group of 157 sheets to Mr. Sidney A. Levinson, P. O. Box 14020, St. Louis, Missouri 63178. I suggest that you insure them for a very minor amount so that you have a receipt for their delivery.

Sincerely yours,

Eric P. Newman
